THE MOONSHIRE RAILROAD CO.
The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Moonshire Railroad Company will be held at the office of the Company, Grand Central Terminal, New York City, on Monday, December 2, 1913, at 12:00 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

AMERICANS STEADY IN LONDON MARKET
Accorded Little Attention, but Prices Are Above Wednesday's Closing Here.

PACIFICS THE FEATURE
No Business From New York, the Traders Taking a Holiday.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Americans to-day were accorded little attention and showed narrow changes. The list, however, was steady and higher by small fractions than the New York closing on Wednesday. Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific were the features of strength in the market. Canadian Pacific gained 1 1/2 points on the last sale. In New York, and Union adding 1 point to the final New York price. Both stocks were selling ex dividend and the gains seemed to be largely through buying on the apparent cheapness of the stock with the dividend off. Canadian and Union each gained 1/2 of a point during the week.

The two points of recessions in the list were Copper and Steel. Copper metal sold 11 lower and all the copper stocks declined. Antimony opened above New York parity, but under some moderate selling declined 1/2 below the New York price. Steel, selling ex dividend, noted in sympathy with the decline in copper, closing 1/2 below parity with New York. The opening price was slightly better. Southern Pacific was steady, gaining 1/4 of a point, closing, however, a little below the best. Reading and St. Paul advanced. The general list closed slightly above opening figures. There was practically no business from New York, your traders apparently having deserted the market on the holiday. Little business originated here. The price of the metal was steady. Tin was lower here on the decline in the price of the metal. The general market was quiet, with a tendency to easier prices than have been maintained in the last week.

The following is a list of the prices, with the New York equivalents containing the price of the dividends in those stocks selling ex dividend in London:

URUGUAY FINANCES IMPROVE.
Gold Reserves Large and New Obligations in Prospect.

South American and business men who have invested in Uruguay were impressed by the financial statement of Uruguay to Washington. The South American countries, it was explained, have felt the effects of the financial stringency in Europe. The situation in Europe, it was pointed out, followed the Balkan war. They have found it hard to negotiate loans and have been depending on their internal resources.

I am advised by the Minister of Finance at Washington, said Jose Riching, Consul-General from Uruguay, "that he has received a cable message from the President of Uruguay, closing the state of finances of the country and its immediate prospects, which reads substantially as follows: 'The National Bank of the Republic has received from the Government gold reserves amounting to 30 per cent. against its liabilities, including notes of issue. Its portfolio of bills and accounts receivable amounts to $7,000,000. The Government has at its disposal of the Bank of 40 per cent. of the Government due in December, 1913. The expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, indicates a surplus of income over expenditures. Therefore the Government will not be under the necessity of issuing any obligations to cover administrative expenses for the balance of the fiscal year. The general situation is materially improving, the gold reserves are large and the Government is confident of its ability to meet its obligations.'"

NEW MILEAGE PLAN A SUCCESS.
Pennsylvania Road to Extend Exchange of Coupons for Tickets.

The experiment undertaken by the Pennsylvania Railroad a month ago in Pittsburgh of arranging for the exchange at station ticket offices of mileage coupons for ordinary railroad tickets has proved such a convenience to passengers that the privilege will be extended on December 1 to those taking trains for Philadelphia, New York, Harrisburg, Scranton, Trenton, Philadelphia, N. J., Lancaster and Harrisburg.

The new plan is this: Any one intending to ride on a Pennsylvania Railroad train overland, and who owns a book of mileage coupons good on the Pennsylvania Railroad, can, if he desires, take the mileage book to a ticket office and exchange the required number of miles for an ordinary ticket. In this way a passenger gets the benefit of the low mileage rate and has his mileage coupons cancelled.

This practice was inaugurated to increase accuracy in cancelling mileage coupons, and to avoid the confusion and delay in delivering mileage books to passengers. The plan is designed to eliminate inconveniences that can arise from passengers surrendering their mileage books to Pullman conductors overnight.

SULZER LEGALLY A LAWYER.
Removal as Governor No Bar to Practice, Says "Law Notes."

The effect of the impeachment of Gov. Sulzer on his status as an attorney is discussed in the current issue of Law Notes, which says that the removal, being coupled with disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust or profit, there would have been raised a nice point as to his right to continue the practice of law.

A decision is referred to in which the court held that "the profession of an attorney and counselor is not like an office created by an act of Congress, which depends for continuance, its power and its emoluments upon the will of its creator and the possession of which may be burdened with any conditions not prohibited by the Constitution. Attorneys are officers of the court, admitted as such by its order upon evidence of their possessing sufficient legal learning and fair private character."

MASKED MEN ROB AND WOUND AGENT
Get $300 at Funderie, Flag Station on Jersey Central.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 27.—Three bandits overpowered William T. Vanfleet, Central Railroad station agent at Funderie, four miles east of this city last night, terrorized his wife and children and after a terrific struggle forced Vanfleet to turn over $300, the contents of the cash drawer. Vanfleet was wounded with a knife before he yielded.

Vanfleet lives with his wife and two small children in the railroad station. At about 7 o'clock he and his family were at supper when two masked men came into the room through the kitchen. One of the intruders pointed a revolver at Vanfleet's head and the other man demanded money. Vanfleet grabbed the weapon and struggled with the bandit. The two rolled upon the floor and the other bandit struck the agent with a blackjack.

FOYE AWAITS REQUISITION.
No Money or Friends to Fight Return to Pennsylvania.

James Edward Foy spent a quiet day in the Tombs yesterday. He did not make a festival in honor of the day. He had not yet obtained new counsel to take the place of Jerome J. Kravitz, who withdrew from the case on Wednesday, and nothing could be learned of his plans. Announcement from Philadelphia that Foy had been indicted gave rise to the belief that a requisition from the Governor of Pennsylvania may come over to-day or to-morrow morning. It is known that Foy would like to fight against going to that State, but he seems to be without money and without friends. Everything he is known to have has been attached. He could not draw a check on any bank and could not get access to any safe deposit vault.

BECKER'S CASE IS READY.
Joseph A. Shay and Arthur Palmer to Make Argument.

Joseph A. Shay, counsel for ex-Attorney Becker, said yesterday that everything is ready for the argument in the Court of Appeals next Monday. With Arthur Palmer he will make the argument for the defendant, while Assistant District Attorney Taylor will appear for the State.

ENDS HER SUIT AT CUT RATE.
Miss Stewart, Dog Fancier, Takes $2,500 From Kennel Club.

E. C. Crowley, attorney for Miss Rosalie Stewart, a dog fancier and writer on dogs, who sued the Kennel Club for $50,000 damages for statements in the American Kennel Gazette that her dog, a fox terrier named "Toy Spaniel," had killed a man, said yesterday that the suit was settled for $2,500.

The action was tried a year ago and Miss Stewart got judgment for $10,000. When the suit was heard by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court the Justices decided to order a new trial in case Miss Stewart would not consent to reduce the judgment to $2,500. Mr. Crowley said that his client wasn't rich enough to carry the case higher and would take the smaller amount, although she believed she was entitled to all the jury gave her.

SEALSHIP OYSTER SYSTEM
NOTICE TO LIENHOLDERS, BONDHOLDERS, AND PREFERRED STOCKHOLDERS

Receivers have been appointed of the Sealship Oyster System by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York and for the Districts of Connecticut and Massachusetts. The Company has defaulted in payment of interest on its $2,500,000 of Debenture Bonds, and the principal of the bonds has been declared in default.

It is evident that a reorganization or readjustment of the Company's affairs is essential, and that immediate action by the various creditors and preferred stockholders is desirable. The undersigned, at the request of holders of large amounts of the securities and preferred stock, have consented to act as a Committee to protect the interests of holders of those securities and preferred stock.

MRS. HONORE LOSES SUIT.
Department Store Gets Judgment for $604 by Default.

A judgment by default for $604 has been filed in the City Court against Mrs. Harriet Honore of 509 West End Avenue. The judgment is in favor of the Department Store, which is the plaintiff in the case. The judgment is for the amount of $604, which is the amount of the debt.

CITY HOUSE FOR ROCKAWAY.
Beach Firemen Now Equipped With Motor Driven Apparatus.

Rockaway Beach christened its first city built fire engine house yesterday with a parade, speechmaking, a banquet and fireworks. The new fire house is a handsome building, and the apparatus being motor driven.
